Jonathan Geider

Associate

Jonathan Geider is a labor law and premises liability attorney who prioritizes consistent, strong communication with his clients throughout the entire litigation process. Mr. Geider understands the complexities of the legal process and aims to create individual strategies early on in the process specific to each case to work toward obtaining the best resolutions for clients. He wants to ensure he is available to each individual client he serves from commencement to conclusion.

Prior to joining Tanenbaum Keale, Mr. Geider practiced at several New York law firms with a focus on insurance defense. He has also served as a judicial law clerk for the state of New Jersey and held an internship in the New Jersey Attorney General's Office.

Experience

- Succeeded on a motion to dismiss a lawsuit filed in connection with a work-related accident by showing through affidavits and work records that the plaintiff was laid off several days before the claimed date of loss. The motion was granted unopposed as plaintiff's counsel withdrew upon learning that the accident was fabricated.
